RE: Exam Information and Permission Form – January Mid-Terms

This year, we are having January mid-term exams to prepare our Jr. High students for their year-end finals. These mid-terms will occur the week of January 23, 2023, and are for all our Grade 7 to 9 students. The weighing of the mid-term exams will depend on the subject teachers.

There are no regularly scheduled classes during the week of January 23 - 26 as students write mid-term exams. Buses will be running in the morning and at the end of the day. On exam days, students will arrive at the regular time and go to their homeroom classroom when the bell rings, and mid-term exams start at 9:15 am. Students will stay in the exam room until at least 10:15 am, so they should bring reading material if they finish their exam early. Students will have till 11:15 am to complete their exams. Cell phones, Apple Watches, or other electronic devices will not be permitted in the exam rooms. There are no scheduled classes in the afternoon all week.

Here is the mid-term exam schedule for grades 7, grade 8, and grade 9:

Monday, January 23	Tuesday, January 24	Wednesday, January 25	Thursday, January 26	Friday, January 27
Math	Social Studies	English Language Arts	Science	No School PD Day

With parental permission, students may be allowed to leave school after their exams (after 10:15 am). Regular school bussing is available only for those students remaining for the entire school day. Please complete the form below and return it to the homeroom teacher by Thursday, January 12, 2023, so we can ensure your child's attendance is correct during mid-term exam week.

Respectfully yours,
Greg Kostiuk

- I give my child permission to leave school following mid-term exams and am responsible for transportation.
- My child will stay at school until the end of regularly scheduled classes and remain in a study room environment in their homeroom.
